THE MARYSVILLE MURDER.

The funeral of the late John Mc-Daniels, fontly murdared by a Chinamen on Saturday morning, took place Sunday at Marysville and was rieu led by the Masonic order, the Exempt Firemen and the citizens generally Great sympathy is expressed for his bereaved wife and six little fatherless children. The heroic action of the Chinese cook, Ah Joe, who went to the assistance of his em ployer on the fatal occasion and afterwards secured the murderer, is highly commended. The particulars of the murder are of a most shocking nature. At about 3 o'clock in Satur day morning, the wife of the murdered man was awakened by some unusual noise, and roused her bus-band. She told him that she thought th re were burglars in the hopse He jumped up and serzed a revolver, uning aly not loaded, and entering his barriom, sawa Chinamin on the verge of departure with a sack full of plunder McDaniels jumped at him and seized him, when a frightful struggle ensued. Finding his revoiver unloaded, he used it as a club across the Chinaman's face, while with his left hand he wrong the other's right, which held a six inch dagger. After a severe tight Me-Diniels acceeded in wrenching the digger from hip. The Chineman then drew a large chisel, some 14 inches long and an inch and a half with which he attempted to stab McDaniels, who was a powerful man, and in his endeavor to defend CURRENCY AND EXCHANGE himself, gouged out a lump of fish from the Chinaman's left arm with the dauger as large as a closed fi-t. The fight must have been short and forious, for the wife, who almost imm-distely followed her husband, had seized the murderer squeue, when with one powerful and fatal lunge, he drove his heavy chisel into Mc Daniel's heart. Seeing his victim. fall, the infurrated coolie turned upon th faithful wife, who still, with all her might, held on to his queue, calling loadly for help. He cut her across the throat, released himself from her hold and took to lie heels. About two hundred feet from the house, however, he was intercepted by the Chinese cook of the establish meat, who, winding the queue of the assessin around the latter's throat, la soed him and threw him to the and foot by the other members of their household, fully aroused by this time by the continued calls for help st in of the deadly chisal passed between McDaniel's fourth and fifth FOPEN DAY AND NIGHT. We paid a visit to Hon. Hubb. Parker's fish hatchery yesterday. In his thirty-two hatching boxes he has no less than 200,000 very lively little salmon. We are compelled to this important step by several weighty reasons: First, we wish to encourage prompt payment. Second, the prompt payer should not be compelled to pay an extra profit for the slow customer or the man that never pays. Third and most important reason, we are not able to carry so large an amount of our capital on our books and keep up our stock of goods.
